"Texas politicians knew agency hid the amount of radiation in drinking water"

Newly-released e-mails from the Texas Commission on Environmental Quality show the agency's top commissioners directed staff to continue lowering radiation test results, in defiance of federal EPA rules.

The e-mails and documents, released under order from the Texas Attorney General to KHOU-TV, also show the agency was attempting to help water systems get out of formally violating federal limits for radiation in drinking water. Without a formal violation, the water systems did not have to inform their residents of the increased health risk.

"It's a conspiracy at the TCEQ of the highest order," said Tom Smith, of the government watchdog group Public Citizen. "The documents have indicted the management of this commission in a massive cover-up to convince people that our water is safe to drink when it's not."

@zcab1776 Only two things come from texas, steers and queers and I dont see no horns son. AHAHAHAHA If I wanted to have my intellect tortured by some backwater cowpoke dipshit buckle wearing homosexual, sure Id come to texas but I am going to pass. 699backstab 45 minutes ago

@699backstab : youre an arrogant and ignorant prick. why dont you come down to Texas, and let me show you a little "hospitality" zcab1776 4 hours ago

@699backstab :who the hell do you think you are to say such a thing? I was born and raised in Texas, and have been not only all over this planet, but mainly all over this country. MANY other states are just as brainwashed, if not worse, by religion. Sub-humans? really? and what "state" of ignorance do you reside? Religion is a world-wide epidemic, as apparently ignorance. If you think your state (country) of origin is superior, your arrogance is sickening. we are ALL human, one, and alike zcab1776 4 hours ago

@yermomsboxx I am aware of that. That was my husband, but thank you for pointing it out, so I had reason to bitch lol. Halestorm84 1 day ago americans... when will the government stop lying to their people. That IS whats wrong. TheBromander 1 day ago

High radiation isnt the biggest problem in texas. Religion is the real issue and its not in the water. Texans or subhumans as they are known, are a complete write off. Its time to euthanize texans and begin again 699backstab 1 day ago
