

About NRC | Nuclear Reactors | Nuclear Materials | Radioactive Waste | Nuclear Security | Public Meetings & Involvement

Spent Fuel Storage

Home > Radioactive Waste > Spent Fuel Storage > Nuclear Fuel Pool Capacity

Licensed Facilities

Locations

Designs

Graph of Fuel Capacity

What We Regulate

Spent Fuel Pools

Dry Cask Storage

How We Regulate

Regulations, Guidance, and Communications

Licensing

Oversight

Public Involvement

Nuclear Fuel Pool Capacity

Note: All operating nuclear power reactors are storing used fuel under NRC license in spent fuel pools. Some operating nuclear reactors are using dry cask storage. Information is based on loss of full-core reserve in the spent fuel pools.

Source: Energy Resources International and DOE/RW-0431 – Revision 1

Privacy Policy | Site Disclaimer

Tuesday, February 13, 2007