i don't live in america, but the america people should have the right to choose if they don't want these emitters put on their houses. people shouldn't have to live in faraday cages, just smash that dangerous thing off the wall. whats the government gonna do, put u in a concentration camp. we all know for a fact, big business has a poor track record when it comes to the safety of people.

@dietdictocrat can you get pg&e to get the smart meters off your house?
MrUncleBosco 2 weeks ago

this is very carefully worded and a clever use of vague science. I would recommend you pay no attention to it.

A video like this needs to go viral.
Most of this info came as NEWS to me.

I do know, however, that if our eyes were sensitive to "RF", we'd be living in a glowing box that would wash out everything else. We'd be blinded by what's traveling through our homes right now. Keep in mind, none of this went on during our evolution, it started 130 yrs. ago with Marconi. For all science knows, ALL CANCER could be the result of "RF".
