

A STUNNING SENIOR MOMENT

2009

A self-important college freshman, walking along the beach one afternoon, took it upon himself to explain to a senior citizen, resting on steps next to the lake, why it was impossible for the older generation to understand his generation.

“You grew up in a different world, actually an almost primitive one,” the student said loud enough for others to hear. “The young people of today grew up with television, jet planes, space travel, and man walking on the moon.”

The young freshman continued, “We have cell phones, rockets, ships, bullet trains, power plants, fast cars, computers with light speed...and so much more.”

After a brief silence, the senior citizen responded, “You’re right son. We didn’t have those things when we were young...so we invented them. Now, you arrogant little x.x.x.x what are you doing for the next generation?”

The applause from the onlookers was amazing!
